

Essential and Municipal Services Upgrade Program

Lombadina Aboriginal community

Profile

Lombadina is located 170 km north of Broome on the Dampier Peninsula.

The community is part of a single urban area that incorporates Djarindjin Aboriginal community and the Lombadina Mission.

The mission was established in 1911 at the site of what is now the Lombadina / Djarindjin township.

Lombadina Aboriginal community has more than 70 residents, the majority of whom are members of the Bardi Jawi language groups.

Stats and facts

Community name	Lombadina
Local government area	Shire of Broome
Population	60 - 100
Distance from nearest town	170 km north of Broome
Governance	Lombadina Aboriginal Corporation

* Lombadina and Djarindjin maintain separate land holdings and separate governance structures. However, essential and municipal services are variably shared and separated.